We will be starting our next season on Tuesday September 9th at 7 15 pm at William Penn School. It is in fact the enrolment day for the orchestra course but as in previous years we shall play some music as well. We are planning to put on three main concerts during the year. The programme and dates for these concerts are as follows:

Violoncello Concerto (Soloist Peter Halling)	Dvorak
Symphony No 1	Sibelius

March 28th 1987

Italian Girl in Algiers Overture	Rossini
Piano Concerto No 2 (Soloist Hamish Pitcaithley)	Brahms
Symphony No 2	Tchaikovsky

June 6th 1987

Water Music Suite No 1	Handel
Prelude to Irmelin	Debussy
Extracts from 'The Planets'	Holst
Pomp and Circumstance March No 1	Elgar
Symphony No 6	Beethoven

The third concert is planned to be part of an English Heritage course organised by the Southwark Institute. All the concerts will be at St Barnabus, Calton Avenue, Dulwich.

The Annual General Meeting of the Dulwich Orchestral Society will be held at 7 00 pm on Tuesday 23rd September 1986 at William Penn School to be followed by a normal rehearsal.

If you have any friends particularly string players who would like to play please ask them to come along. I very much look forward to seeing you in September.

Yours Sincerely,

Philip McKerna
